

I believe it is very important to have public input on this issue. it does not make sense to me in a democracy that you will not even allow the public or Congress to see the wording of the changes before the decision is made. This is an extremely important issue that should have a good debate! Thank you